Duchy League - 2nd August 2015

On Sunday the 2nd August, Mounts Bay AS and Camborne AA are holding the 60th Duchy League competition, which is open to any angling clubs in the County.

For 2015 the MBAS and the CAA have agreed to some rule changes from the previous format.

Competing teams may now consist of six anglers with each angler in each team permitted to weigh one fish per different specie and with no limit as to how many different species he may catch above the CFSA minimum weight.

The competition is free to enter and an optional pool is run on the day, the meet is at Hayle car park and this year the weigh in will be at the Bath Inn, Penzance, where a free pasty supper will be available !

For further information and details please contact Mr Pete Maddern on 01736 362011 or 07855643419

E.C.C.Ports SAC Presentation , Friday 17th April

I accepted an invitation to be guest at the E.C.C. Ports SAC presentation evening which was held at the Porthpean Outdoor Recreation Centre, St Austell.

I thoroughly enjoyed the evening and admired the fine array of trophies awarded. A raffle was run the evening which resulted in £120 being raised for the RNLI.

Mr Richard Buck - CFSA catch and release Recorder

Rich, whilst training for a triathlon on his cycle was involved in a nasty accident with a car which resulted in Rich sustaining numerous injuries to himself, I am sure you will all join me in wishing Rich a speedy and healthy recovery.

RNLI Collection box

The RNLI collection box which accompanies me to the CFSA and CAA meetings has recently been emptied and as a result £454.66p has been given to the RNLI over the last four years .

Many thanks to the CFSA and CAA members who have contributed to such a worthy cause.
